CHAPTER 3.
SEDIMENT CONTROL

Sediment Control (SC) BMPs are controls implemented on a construction site that limit the amount of sediment transported and deposited off-site. SC BMPs serve as treatment measures by providing a second line of defense. SC BMPs are used to detain sediment-laden storm water runoff and promote infiltration and/or sedimentation.

In this chapter:

- General Practices
- Sediment Containment Systems
- Sheet Flow BMPs
- Tracking BMPs