

Erosion Control

Erosion Control (EC) BMPs are devices installed on a construction site that reduce the erosion potential as a result of land-disturbing activities. EC BMPs serve as prevention measures of reducing activities by preventing storm water pollution.