

Sediment Control

Sediment Control (SC) BMPs are controls implemented for a construction site that limit the amount of sediment from being transported and deposited offsite. SC BMPs serve as treatment measures by providing a second line of defense. SC BMPs are used to detain sediment-laden storm water runoff and promote infiltration and/or sedimentation.