

Site Management

Site Management (SM) BMPs are preventative measures implemented during the planning and/or construction stage of the project, which control potential pollutants at their source through the use of good housekeeping practices.